

Time Stamps for SCICR Zoom Recording on February 7, 2022

0:0 – Worship and Prayer led by Barbara Newsom.

8:50 – Agenda Approval

9:08 – Minutes approval

10:30 – IT Report

13:26 – Chair Report

18:50 – Discussion about ways to approach our crafting of the purpose statement

1:14:08 – Motion passed unanimously to craft one short, focused purpose statement led by Sue Seccombe. Each SCICR member will rank the ideas on an approval scale of 1-10

1:56:00 – Further discussion and agreement to work on these purpose proposals in Google Drive and continue our collaboration on March 7, 2022.

2:03:18 – Adjourn to February 21, 2022 for our open meeting with John Hales and Gloriann Harris.

Here are the three purpose proposals that we crafted during our discussions. We will continue to find collaborative ways to improve this before we move on to Preamble. Any feedback is welcome.

The Urantia Book Fellowship is a democratic organization that exists to study and disseminate the teachings of the Urantia Book; to foster community around a new revelation of science, philosophy and religion; and to inspire the worldwide transformation of individuals, families, and society.

The purposes of the Urantia Book Fellowship are to study and disseminate the teachings of the Urantia Book; to foster a community dedicated to sharing the personal experience of a new revelation of science, philosophy and religion; and to inspire the worldwide transformation of individuals, families, and society.

The purposes of the Urantia Book Fellowship are to foster a community dedicated to sharing the experience of an epochal revelation; and to inspire the worldwide transformation of individuals, families, and society.